Thanks for linking to us!

2008-08-21 15:38:00

By Eugene Raikhel

A big thanks to all of the folks at other blogs who have written about our fledging efforts here at Somatosphere. Daniel Lende at Neuroanthropology and Chris Kelty at Savage Minds (two excellent anthropology blogs) have posted on us. We've also been mentioned at Social and Cultural Anthropology in the News.

Thanks to all!

Also, since we're still relatively new to this, I want to emphasize that readers with any suggestions — improvements to the format of the blog, ideas about what we should cover, or anything else — should feel free to write us at somatosphere at gmail dot com.
