Somatosphere readers: we welcome your contributions!

2012-12-11 10:04:21

By Eugene Raikhel

As we head toward the end of 2012, I'd like to warmly thank all of the regular and guest contributors who have written for the site this year. I'll be posting a few highlights from 2012 over the next several weeks.

And to our readers: thank you for visiting the site. Please remember that we are always on the lookout for contributions. Get in touch with us if you are interesting in writing for Somatosphere. We're interested in all kinds of posts related to medicine, health and the social sciences: research reports, essays, book reviews, photo essays, interviews, conference reports, syllabi, and pretty much any other kind of genre you might want to use. If you have an idea and aren't sure whether it's appropriate for the site, get in touch and we'll let you know. And tell your colleagues and students. You can contact us at admin AT somatosphere DOT net.
